CHAIRMAN'S REVIEW

Financial Performance:

The Directors of CDL Investments New Zealand Limited ("CDLI") advise that the Company has made an unaudited operating profit after tax of $1,684,000 for the six month period ending 30 June 2010 (2009: $31,000 loss). Operating profit before tax was $2,377,000 (2009: $29,000 loss). Property sales and other income for the period was $5,705,000 (2009: $910,000). A total of 32 sections were sold (2009: 3). Net Asset Backing as at 30 June 2010 was 37.0 cents per share (2009: 37.3 cents per share).

Effect of the May 2010 Budget on the Group's financial position:

On 20 May 2010 the New Zealand Government announced a reduction in the corporate tax rate from 30 percent to 28 percent and also announced the removal of the ability to depreciate buildings for tax purposes, with effect from 1 January 2011. CDLI is able to confirm that the removal of the ability to depreciate buildings for tax purposes will not affect its profitability as it does not own or lease any buildings that would fall into the applicable categories.

Commentary and Outlook:

It is pleasing to report a return to profit for this period. The profit reflects sales made in second half of 2009 which settled this year as well as new sales made during the year. Demand has been strongest for lower-priced sections and in the South Island and we have focused our marketing and sales efforts where we believe we will maximise sales.

We caution shareholders, however, that while the 2010 result will be profitable overall, several negative factors such as availability of bank finance, the increase in GST from October 2010 and likely increases in interest rates in 2010 will continue to have a direct impact on the ability of the company to sell residential sections in quantity. The forecast sales activity for the second half of this year is not as positive as we have seen year to date.

CDL INVESTMENTS RETURNS TO PROFIT FOR THE 2010 HALF YEAR

Property development and investment company CDL Investments New Zealand Limited (NZX:CDI) today released its (unaudited) results for the six months to 30 June 2010 and announced an operating profit of $1,684,000 on revenue of $5,705,000.

"After last year's results, it is pleasing that we can report a half-year profit once again", said Managing Director Mr. B K Chiu.

While the company had its costs under control, Mr. Chiu was cautious about its trading for the second half of the year.

"Obviously the increase in bank deposit requirements and likely increases in interest rates over the coming months will affect our ability to sell residential sections in quantity", he said. "Buyers will understandably exercise caution and review spending decisions and capital outlay so we do not believe that we will see the expected pick up in the last quarter of the year".

Mr. Chiu did note that the company had seen increased interest in certain areas.

"There is demand for lower priced sections in key growth areas. CDL Investments has the advantage of high quality product which is spread throughout New Zealand and we are ready for the market upturn", he said.
