Millennium and Copthorne Hotels New Zealand Ltd (MCK) provides the following update in relation to the Copthorne Hotel Christchurch City [Durham Street]:

As announced earlier this morning by the Minister for Earthquake Recovery and the Canterbury Earthquake Recovery Authority (CERA), demolition work on the Copthorne Hotel Christchurch City, a leased property, will be commencing in the very near future. CERA has confirmed that a contract for the works has now been awarded to Leighs Engineering and that the demolition will be by mechanical means. The work is expected to be completed by mid-November this year.

"We are pleased that the contract has been awarded and we look forward to further progress being made on the reconstruction of Christchurch", said MCK Managing Director Mr. B K Chiu.
