CHAIRMAN'S REVIEW

Financial Performance

CDL Investments New Zealand Limited ("CDLI") has reported yet another record operating profit after tax of $10.9 million for the year ended 31 December 2006, an increase of 19.1% from the corresponding period in 2005. Operating profit before tax and minorities was $16.3 million (2005: $13.6 million). Property sales & other income for the period under review was $31.6 million. This was an increase of 28.9% on 2005 (2005: $24.5 million). A total of 182 sections were sold.

Shareholders' funds as at 31 December 2006 were $74.7 million (2005: $64.6 million) and total assets stood at $76.2 million (2005: $65.6 million). The net tangible asset per share was 34.1 cents (2005: 30.7 cents). The value of CDLI's land holdings as at 31 December 2006 was $157.0 million (2005: $131.2 million).

CDLI adopted the New Zealand Equivalents to International Financial Reporting Standards ('NZ IFRS') in 2005.

Dividend Announcement

The Company has resolved to pay a fully imputed ordinary dividend of 2.3 cents per share payable on 30 March 2007 (2005: 2.0 cents). The Dividend Reinvestment Plan applies to this dividend.

Directors

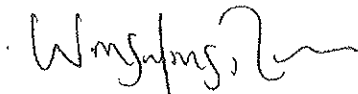

In August 2006, Graham McKenzie retired from the Board and John Henderson was appointed as an Independent Director. I would like to thank Graham for his valuable contribution to the Board during the year.

Outlook

The New Zealand property market continued to be buoyant and enjoyed better than expected growth in 2006 despite predictions to the contrary. It is anticipated that this positive sentiment will continue into the first quarter of 2007. While factors such as increases in the number of residential building consents in the latter part of 2006 and keen buyer interest in the residential market were welcome, the Reserve Bank continues to signal that there are underlying negative economic pressures and, until last month, had signaled further interest rate rises. While it is still somewhat early to say in which direction the economy will head, the Company is focused on ensuring maintenance of profitability as well as market share during this year to take best advantage of the ongoing upbeat market climate. Assuming that there will not be any further interest rate increases or other unexpected changes in market conditions, the Board believes that the Company will deliver another satisfactory set of results in 2007.

Management and staff

On behalf of the Board, I wish to extend our thanks to the Company's management and staff for their hard work during 2006.

Wong Hong Ren
Chairman

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

For the year ended 31 December 2006

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

REPORTING ENTITY

CDL Investments New Zealand Limited (the "Company") is a company domiciled in New Zealand, registered under the Companies Act 1993 and listed on the New Zealand Stock Exchange. The Company is an issuer in terms of the Financial Reporting Act 1993.

The consolidated financial statements of CDL Investments New Zealand Limited as at and for the year ended 31 December 2006 comprise the Company and its subsidiary (together referred to as the "Group").

(a) Statement of compliance

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 1993, Financial Reporting Act 1993 and New Zealand Generally Accepted Accounting Practice ("NZ GAAP"). They comply with New Zealand equivalents to International Financial Reporting Standards ("NZ IFRS"), as appropriate for profit-oriented entities. Compliance with NZ IFRS ensures that the financial statements also comply with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS").

The consolidated financial statements were authorised for issuance on 14 February 2007.

(b) Basis of preparation

The financial statements are presented in New Zealand Dollars ($), which is the Company's functional currency. All financial information presented in New Zealand dollars has been rounded to the nearest thousand.

The financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis.

Non-current assets and disposal groups held for sale are stated at the lower of carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with NZ IFRS requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of company policies and reported amounts of assets and liabilities, income and expenses. Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised and in any future period affected.

To ensure consistency with the current period, comparative figures have been restated where appropriate.

The accounting policies set out below have been applied consistently by Group entities, and to all periods presented in these consolidated financial statements.

(c) Basis of consolidation

(i) Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are entities controlled by the Company. Control exists when the Company has the power, directly or indirectly, to govern the financial and operating policies of an entity so as to obtain benefits from its activities. In assessing control, potential voting rights that presently are exercisable or convertible are taken into account. The financial statements of subsidiaries are included in the consolidated financial statements from the date that control commences until the date that control ceases.

(ii) Transactions eliminated on consolidation

Intragroup balances and any unrealised gains and losses or income and expenses arising from intragroup transactions, are eliminated in preparing the consolidated financial statements. Unrealised gains arising from transactions with associates and jointly controlled entities are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interest in the entity. Unrealised losses are eliminated in the same way as unrealised gains, but only to the extent that there is no evidence of impairment.

CDL Investments New Zealand Limited and its Subsidiary

Significant accounting policies - continued

(d) Plant, furniture and equipment

Initial recording

Items of plant, furniture and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. The cost of purchased plant, furniture and equipment is the value of the consideration given to acquire the assets and the value of other directly attributable costs, which have been incurred in bringing the assets to the location and condition necessary for their intended service. Where parts of an item of plant, furniture and equipment have different useful lives, they are accounted for as separate items of plant, furniture and equipment.

Depreciation on assets is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate cost to their residual values over their estimated useful lives, as follows:

|--------------------------------|--------------|
| Plant, furniture and equipment | 3 - 10 years |
|--------------------------------|--------------|

Gains or losses arising from the retirement or disposal of plant, furniture and equipment are determined as the difference between the estimated net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and are recognised in the profit and loss account on the date of retirement or disposal.

(e) Development properties

Property held for future development is stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost includes the cost of acquisition, development, and holding costs such as interest and rates. Interest and other holding costs incurred after completion of development are expensed as incurred. All holding costs are written off through the income statement in the year incurred with the exception of interest holding costs which are capitalised during the period when active development is taking place. Revenue and profit are not recognised on development properties until the legal title passes to the buyer when the full settlement of the purchase consideration of the properties occurs.

(f) Trade and other receivables

Trade and other receivables are stated at their cost less impairment losses.

(g) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash balances and call deposits. Bank overdrafts that are repayable on demand and form an integral part of the Group's cash management are included as a component of cash and cash equivalents for the purpose of the statement of cash flows.

(h) Impairment

The carrying amounts of the Group's assets other than deferred tax assets are reviewed at each balance sheet date to determine whether there is any indication of impairment. If any such indication exists, the asset's recoverable amount is estimated (see accounting policy h(i)).

An impairment loss is recognised whenever the carrying amount of an asset or its cash-generating unit exceeds its recoverable amount. Impairment losses are recognised in the income statement.

(i) Calculation of recoverable amount

The recoverable amount of assets is the greater of their net selling price and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. For an asset that does not generate largely independent cash inflows, the recoverable amount is determined for the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs. The recoverable amount of the Group's receivables with short duration is not discounted.

(ii) Reversals of impairment

An impairment loss in respect of a receivable carried at amortised cost is reversed if the subsequent increase in recoverable amount can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment loss was recognised.

An impairment loss is reversed if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount.

An impairment loss is reversed only to the extent that the asset's carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation or amortisation, if no impairment loss had been recognised.

CDL Investments New Zealand Limited and its Subsidiary

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(i) Trade and other payables

Trade and other payables are stated at cost.

(j) Expenses

(i) Operating lease payments

Payments made under operating leases are recognised in the income statement on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease. Lease incentives received are recognised in the income statement as an integral part of the total lease expense.

(ii) Finance expenses and income

Finance expenses comprise interest payable on borrowings calculated using the effective interest rate method, interest receivable on funds invested and dividend income that are recognised in profit or loss.

Finance income is recognised in profit or loss as it accrues, using the effective interest method. Dividend income is recognised in profit or loss on the date the entity's right to receive payments is established.

Interest attributable to funds used to finance the acquisition, development or construction of property held for development or sale is capitalised gross of tax relief and added to the cost of the property during the period when active development takes place.

(k) Income tax

Income tax on the profit or loss for the year comprises current and deferred tax. Income tax is recognised in the income statement except to the extent that it relates to items recognised directly in equity, in which case it is recognised in equity.

Current tax is the expected tax payable on the taxable income for the year, using tax rates enacted or substantially enacted at the balance sheet date, and any adjustment to tax payable in respect of previous years.

Deferred tax is provided using the balance sheet liability method of providing for temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for taxation purposes. The temporary differences relating to investments in subsidiaries are not provided for to the extent that they will probably not reverse in the foreseeable future. The amount of deferred tax provided is based on the expected manner of realisation or settlement of the carrying amount of assets and liabilities, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date.

A deferred tax asset is recognised only to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which the asset can be utilised. Deferred tax assets are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realised.

Additional income taxes that arise from the distribution of dividends are recognised at the same time as the liability to pay the related dividend.

(l) Revenue

Revenue represents amounts derived from:

- Income from land and property sales; recognised on the transfer of the related significant risk and rewards of ownership.

(m) Segment reporting

A segment is a distinguishable component of the Group that is engaged either in providing products or services (business segment), or in providing products or services within a particular economic environment (geographical segment), which is subject to risks and rewards that are different from those of other segments.

(n) Investments in subsidiaries

Investment in subsidiaries are stated at cost less any provision for permanent diminution in value, which is recorded through the income statement.

16. Financial instruments

Exposure to credit and interest rate risks arises in the normal course of the Group's business.

Credit risk

Management has a credit policy in place and the exposure to credit risk is monitored on an ongoing basis. Credit evaluations are performed on all customers requiring credit over a certain amount. The Group does not require collateral in respect of financial assets.

Investments are allowed only in liquid securities and only with counterparties that have a credit rating equal to or better than the Group. Given their high credit ratings, management does not expect any counterparty to fail to meet its obligations.

At the balance sheet date there were no significant concentrations of credit risk. The maximum exposure to credit risk is represented by the carrying amount of each financial asset, including derivative financial instruments, in the balance sheet as shown below:

Estimation of fair values

The following summarises the major methods and assumptions used in estimating the fair values of financial instruments reflected in the above tables.

CDL Investments New Zealand Limited and its Subsidiary

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

16. Financial instruments - Estimation of fair values - continued

- (a) Cash, accounts receivable, accounts payable and prepaid taxation:- The carrying amount for these balances approximate their fair value because of the short maturities of these items.
- (b) Shares in companies and other investments:- The carrying amount for these balances represents cost less impairment, if any.

17. Operating Leases Leases as Lessee

Non-cancellable operating lease rentals are payable as follows:

21. Accounting estimates and judgements

Management discussed with the Audit Committee the development, selection and disclosure of the Group's critical accounting policies and estimates and the application of these policies and estimates.

Key sources of estimation uncertainty

In note 16 detailed analysis is given of the interest rate and credit risk exposure of the Group and risks in relation thereto. The Group is also exposed to market fluctuations in the value of development properties. The carrying value of development properties is $59,310,000 (2005: $56,823,000) while the net realisable value determined by independent valuers is $153,790,000 (2005: $128,485,000). Accordingly there has to be a significant decline in value before the Group is affected.

Audit report

To the shareholders of CDL Investments New Zealand Limited

We have audited the financial statements on pages 1 to 17. The financial statements provide information about the past financial performance and financial position of the company and group as at 31 December 2006. This information is stated in accordance with the accounting policies set out on pages 5 to 7.

Directors' responsibilities

The Directors are responsible for the preparation of financial statements which give a true and fair view of the financial position of the company and group as at 31 December 2006 and the results of their operations and cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Auditors' responsibilities

It is our responsibility to express an independent opinion on the financial statements presented by the Directors and report our opinion to you.

Basis of opinion

An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. It also includes assessing:

- the significant estimates and judgments made by the Directors in the preparation of the financial statements;
- whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the company's and group's circumstances, consistently applied and adequately disclosed.

We conducted our audit in accordance with New Zealand Auditing Standards. We planned and performed our audit so as to obtain all the information and explanations which we considered necessary in order to provide us with sufficient evidence to obtain reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatements, whether caused by fraud or error. In forming our opinion we also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the financial statements.

Our firm has also provided other services to the company and certain of its subsidiaries in relation to taxation and general accounting services. Partners and employees of our firm may also deal with the company and group on normal terms within the ordinary course of trading activities of the business of the company and group. These matters have not impaired our independence as auditors of the company and group. The firm has no other relationship with, or interest in, the company or any of its subsidiaries.

Unqualified opinion

We have obtained all the information and explanations we have required.

In our opinion:

- proper accounting records have been kept by the company as far as appears from our examination of those records;
- the financial statements on pages 1 to 17:
 - comply with New Zealand generally accepted accounting practice;
 - give a true and fair view of the financial position of the company and group as at 31 December 2006 and the results of their operations and cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Our audit was completed on 14 February 2007 and our unqualified opinion is expressed as at that date.

CDL INVESTMENTS CAPITALISES ON CONTINUED STRONG MARKET DEMAND FOR QUALITY RESIDENTIAL SECTIONS

Property development company CDL Investments New Zealand Limited (NZX: CDI) today reported its preliminary results for the year ended 31 December 2006.

Chairman Mr. Wong Hong Ren said that the company had achieved an operating profit after tax of $10.9 million on revenue of $31.6 million and had sold a total of 182 sections in 2006. The company's total assets had also increased to $76.2 million.

Acknowledging the healthy 19.1% increase in profit and 28.9% increase in revenue over the same period in 2005, Mr. Wong noted that the New Zealand property market had continued to be buoyant in 2006 despite predictions to the contrary.

"We are pleased that CDL Investments has been able to take advantage of these better than expected market conditions and deliver yet another set of strong results", Mr. Wong said.

The Company also announced that its Board had increased the ordinary dividend to 2.3 cents per share, a 15% increase from last year. The dividend would be fully imputed and payable to shareholders on 30 March 2006. The Company announced that the Dividend Reinvestment Plan would apply to this dividend and the record date for participation would be 16 March 2007.

Managing Director B K Chiu said that while it was too early in the year to make definitive comments about the prospects for this year, he believed that CDL Investments could continue to capitalize on positive market conditions into the first quarter of 2007.

"Trading conditions remain positive in the residential property markets generally and this has been reflected in the good start made to date. However, we are conscious of the increasing compliance and development costs such as local government levies. These have increased over the past eighteen months and are starting to impact on our business".

Mr. Chiu remained upbeat about CDL Investments' prospects for 2007.

"CDL Investments has an excellent and long-held reputation for producing high quality sections in key growth areas. Our focus in 2007 will therefore be on maintaining our profitability, market share and section quality in order to maximize our returns across the board", he said.

Summary of results:

| | |
|--|---|
| • Operating profit after tax | $10.9 million (2005: $9.1 million) |
| • Operating profit before tax and minorities | $16.3 million (2005: $13.6 million) |
