Millennium & Copthorne Hotels New Zealand (NZX: MCK) provides the following update in respect of the earthquake affecting the Canterbury Region on 22 February 2011:

- Millennium Hotel Christchurch: Has been cleared for re-entry once the cordons are lifted;
- Copthorne Hotel Christchurch Central: Has been issued with a Restricted Use Notice. A more detailed structural inspection is yet to be completed as the hotel remains in the cordoned area;
- Copthorne Hotel Christchurch City (formerly known as Copthorne Hotel Christchurch Durham Street): Currently deemed unsafe for occupation. Discussions have taken place with Civil Defence Emergency Management (CDEM). Measures have been put in place to stabilise the building pending further engineering investigations.
